

FACILITIES AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Central will comply with the provisions of Title III of Americans with Disabilities Act as a public accommodation, and will provide reasonable accommodation to persons otherwise qualified who follow the College's ADA procedures, inasmuch as the reasonable accommodation does not constitute an undue burden or fundamental alteration for the College. A person with a disability is someone who has a physical or mental impairment, has a record of such impairment, and/or is regarded as having such impairment. A student is considered a qualified student with a disability if he or she can meet all standards and perform all functions required for admission, participation, and continuation in Central's programs and activities. A qualified student will be given the needed help and guidance through the admissions process to ensure they complete the necessary steps to admissions.

Central provides the following services for those who are qualified student with a disability.

1. The College will make any appropriate and reasonable adjustments for students to provide accessibility to academic activities. This includes, but is not limited to providing assistance with alternative test and examination requirements, Learning Center accessibility, and tutors available for additional help with daily coursework and alternative learning capacity.
2. The College will make any appropriate and reasonable adjustments for students to provide accessibility to nonacademic activities. This includes but is not limited to providing accessibility to housing needs, dietary needs, help with identifying financial assistance and other specialized services. Counseling is available for all Central students.
3. Students desiring help with a disability must notify the academic office of the disability, provide current and comprehensive documentation concerning the nature and extent of the disability, and articulate their needs for the disabilities service provided on campus.
