Gainful Employment Disclosures

No Longer Required

Private Education Loan and Self-Certification Disclosures

Central Christian College of the Bible cautions borrowers to weigh all of their options before taking any private education loans. Borrowers may qualify for federal loans or other assistance under Title IV. The terms and conditions of federal loans may be more favorable than private education loans. Students who, after careful consideration, choose to take a Private Education Loan are required to sign a Self-Certification Form. A copy of that form can be found at the following link.
